

Burkes Pass, 2123 Fairlie-Tekapo Road

Starry Night : Burkes Pass

Wake up to the gentle song of birds & on a clear starry night allow yourself to be mesmerised by the stars as they arch across the dark sky. Nestled in the greenery of a well-established garden and backed by farmland, this north-facing home well-appointed high on a sloping generous 2420sqm across two separate adjoining titles is private and sheltered. Secluded from the road by trees, the home is well-positioned to enjoy the majestic Mackenzie Country scenery landscapes & the timeless splendour unique to this heritage village under the awe-inspiring night skies above.

The home boasts open plan living, with a log burner and a heat pump to provide warmth & ambiance in the cooler months. An elevated sun-drenched deck flowing off the living space is perfect to relax and enjoy the peace and tranquillity of the surroundings. With an expansive rolling lawn, a trampoline and a secluded hot tub, there is something for the entire family. Two bedrooms, a bathroom and hideaway laundry complete the lower level. The upper level of the home boasts a spacious area with a bedroom & a separate area currently used as a games area. Dormer windows provide the perfect vantage point to enjoy the night sky.

A garage and a large woodstore provide plenty of storage options whilst the substantial fully-fenced land parcel provides for ample off street parking.

With separate adjoining titles included and located on the popular Starlight Highway, this private retreat in the historic mountain pass village of Burkes Pass is enjoyed by many families under visitor accommodation. With the popularity of Burkes Pass ever increasing as an overnight stay location, this package presents a unique opportunity to secure your slice of paradise in a truly tranquil setting in close proximity to world renowned tourist attractions including Lake Tekapo, neighbouring ski-fields & an abundance of outdoor activities.
